

CALL FOR PAPERS

"Different Isn't So Different Anymore"

OCTOBER 24-26, 2010 HOLIDAY INN- AIRPORT DES MOINES, IOWA

LDA-IA is seeking qualified persons to make presentations to parents, individuals with learning disabilities, teachers, administrators, support personnel, and other interested persons. Serious consideration will be given to proposals on current issues relating to learning disabilities and differentiation of instruction. We are seeking information on teaching approaches and techniques for all ages and grade levels. Presentations appealing to adults with learning disabilities and to parents of children with LD are especially welcome. Handouts are always appreciated by those attending the conference.

Single sessions are normally one-hour and fifteen minutes in length. If you have questions about the format or length of a presentation, please call one of the contact persons below.

Send or e-mail proposals by July 15, 2010 to

Kim Miller, Program Chairperson
1826 Walnut St.
Cedar Falls, IA 50613-3851

OR

Kathy Specketer, LDA-IA Coordinator
5665 Greendale Rd., Suite D
Johnston, IA 50131

E-mail: kim.miller@uni.edu

E-mail: kathylda@askresource.org

Phone: (515) 280-8558 or (888) 690-5324

(Detach and send)

PROPOSAL FORM

Title: _____
(A summary of the proposed presentation & a description of presentation techniques must be attached to this form.)

Presenter's Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: Home: () _____ Work: () _____

E-mail: _____

Days Available to Present: Sunday _____ Monday _____ Tuesday _____ No preference _____